Rabbi's Message by Rabbi Beth Klafter

Dear Friends,

As Rabbi Halpern also wrote in this month's HaKol, we approach the High Holidays and the year 5786 with mixed emotions. As Ecclesiastes teaches us: "For everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven." One of the mar-vels of our Jewish tradition is the recognition that our lives are constantly a balance between seemingly opposing sentiments. From the sanctity and serenity of Yom Kippur, we turn, almost immediately, to the celebration of Sukkot. At the moment of great joy under the chuppah, we break a glass to remind us of times and places of destruction and brokenness in our history and in our world. On Saturday evenings, when we observe Havdalah, we do so with a twisted candle, reminding us that there are weekdays and there is Shabbat; there is dark and light.

This balance is true for the sacred community of TBD. At this season, there is the joy of the holidays, familiar melodies and traditional words; private introspection and community worship. The cycle of the year begins anew, offering new opportunities and new beginnings. The recent sale of our building to NSSA and the partnership we now share with them is both exciting and energizing, as it secures the future of the congregation in our home on Hauppauge Road. At the same time, there are changes in our physical building underway which are unfamiliar and may feel inconvenient. Still, a new chapter in the long history of our congregation is unfolding. There is much to be thankful for.

There is also the recognition that this will be the final High Holiday season Rabbi Halpern and I will celebrate with you as your clergy. While I look forward to my own new chapter beginning next summer, I do so with mixed emotions. I look forward with joy and with honor to serve as your Senior Rabbi once again. "There is a time for every purpose under heaven," reminds us that moments of joy are sometimes balanced with moments of sadness, too. These are the measure of my love for TBD and for each of you. I will have the opportunity to share more words and reflections in the coming weeks during the holidays. And we have many more months together, to continue to learn and to pray, to celebrate and to comfort one another.

Message from President Ken Marenus

Once again, the New Year is nearly upon us. It's a traditional time for us as individuals to stop and reflect....a time to consider, change and evolve. The same is true for Temple Beth David.

Over the past year we have experienced significant change as it relates to our Temple.

We have embarked on a series of transformative events that will reshape how and what we do as a congregation. Our fundamentals and principles remain very much the same, but our physical environment and processes will continue to evolve. We are adapting to the realities of our congregation's size, the nature of the larger community, and the economic challenges that remain.

Over the summer we began the process of adapting our physical space to our new realities, and there is still a lot to do. We want everyone to have input so that the results will be functional and personally meaningful.

We have begun a review of our Constitution to update, clarify and adapt our operations to our current time and size. We are also engaged in updating our office services to make your own experience more comfortable and efficient when engaging in the practical aspects of Temple membership.

Finally, we are gearing up for a multi-year search for our new clergy. Over the past many years, we have been very fortunate in having consistent, dependable and outstanding support from our rabbinical team. As our clergy move into retirement, we have begun the process of defining ourselves more clearly so we can engage new clergy that meet our collective needs.

So, we once again find ourselves at our yearly crossroads. It's time for each member of Temple Beth David to step up and make their voice heard so that the result will be a Temple that is completely aligned with our needs and who we are at this important crossroads in our history.

Ken

I share Rabbi Halpern's sentiments about the partnership we share. It is a unique blessing and privilege to serve together. This is true through all the months of the year. It is especially true during the High Holidays. In fact, this is our "Bat Mitzvah year" leading services together. I arrived at TBD in 2006 as the Director of the Religious School and in 2013 was privileged to become the Senior Rabbi. Thus, this is the thirteenth year we will share the bema in our white robes to welcome a new year. Like a B'Mitzvah student, our worship will mark a moment of transition, as we look back and look ahead to a new year.

I pray that the year 5786 will be filled with sweetness and blessings for each of us. I pray that the world around us will be filled with peace and justice for all.

Shana Tova,

Rabbi Beth H. Klapfer

Clergy Reflections by Rabbi Audrey Halpern

Dear Friends,

Here we are at the end of the summer. School supplies line the shelves and fall clothing fills store windows. Even the newest boots (my favorite) are coming out in a few shops! And yet despite the excitement and the buzz of new beginnings, I would be disingenuous if I didn't share with you, my long-time friends, the wistfulness I feel in my heart as we approach these, our final High Holidays together at Temple Beth David. Having begun as Cantor of the congregation in July 1988, this will be my thirty-eighth year serving you as Cantor, and more recently, as Rabbi as well.

Dr. Ken Marenus, our president, came back to serve as Temple president again and epitomizes humble leadership. His steadfast guidance and determination, along with so many of you who have helped to steer us toward a bright and secure future, has been inspirational. Each prayer during these holy days will be filled with memories of you both collectively and individually.

I will look across the bimah and see my dearest friend and colleague, Rabbi Beth Klafter. She has been a generous and collaborative clergy partner, and I have said silently and aloud that Rabbi Klafter has been the greatest blessing of these final years here. We have laughed and cried and planned and hashed and rehashed everything for years.

You have allowed us into your hearts and your homes. We have stood with you through the most joyous and the most painful times that life brings. We have always endeavored to hold this as a sacred trust.

I know there have been times I have failed. These High Holidays I will atone personally if I have hurt or disappointed anyone and like all of us as Jews, I will ask God's forgiveness. I have always been proud to be your Cantor and then your Rabbi and I thank you for that honor and privilege.

These final holidays I am reminded of words from Ecclesiastes, for each ending is a reminder that life is finite and each moment has its time.

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace."

May this time of endings for us together lead us, as well, on paths of new beginnings and may we be richer for all we have shared.

Shana Tova U'metuka.
B'shalom,
Rabbi Audrey Halpern

Margie Gursky Religious School News

“CHANGE IS HARD AT FIRST, MESSY IN THE MIDDLE AND GORGEOUS AT THE END.”

-Robyn Sharma

It's been a great and also busy summer here at TBD, lots of hard, messy and then gorgeous change all around! NSSA (Nassau Suffolk Services for Autism) moved into the old ECC end of the building, my office moved down the hall, we consolidated a lot of our supplies, emptied four classrooms for NSSA to use (we have plenty more!), somehow gave away thousands of books, CDs, games, old computer parts, moved our entrance to inside the courtyard, and added new signs to lead the way. Rabbi Klafter spearheaded most of the moving, consolidating and organizing while our Temple president worked hard behind the scenes to get the entrance moved, sidewalk repaved etc. Other committees are working steadily to create more gorgeous changes in the future.

Religious School begins on September 10, just a few days after you receive this bulletin. We are commencing our school year on Sunday, September 7 with our annual Religious School Kickoff. We will have crafts, games and yummy treats for all ages. You are welcome to bring your friends and grandparents (after all, our event is on Grandparents Day!).

I would like to welcome back all of our families from last year, and I can't wait to get to know all of our new families. Please feel free to call or stop by to ask questions or just chat. My door is always open. I am looking forward to enjoy getting to know you and seeing you at Shabbat and High Holiday services. Keep an eye out for information about all of our services and programs.

Shana Tova!

Sisterhood

Welcome back to a new year of Sisterhood! Welcome new members! We are all excited to meet you and celebrate engaging events together.

First, a few highlights of some of the exciting work we've been doing. In June, Sisterhood held its Installation of officers and hosted a dinner. Barbara Klein and I organized and led this service at my house, and it was so meaningful for all of us. Book club had two fantastic talks about the books Strangers in Time by David Baldacci and The Names by Florence Knapp. We gathered with the Brotherhood for an evening on the beach at Sunken Meadow State Park to kibbitz with friends. Thank you to our vice presidents, Irma Sarisohn and Debra Blatt and Temple liaison Nicolle Horowitz, for their leadership and flexibility.

We have another exciting year ahead of us. We begin with a general meeting on Thursday, September 11 at 7:30, where all are invited to attend and contribute ideas for this coming year. The event we all look forward to is the annual Welcome Back Nosh on Sunday, September 14 at 9:00 am in the social hall. Afterwards, we will move outside, weather permitting, for an hour of Chair Yoga, led by Katie Nerrie. We look forward to seeing returning members and welcoming new ones over breakfast. Next, our book club meets on the Temple Zoom on Monday, Sept. 29 at 8:00 pm. We will be discussing Project Hail Mary: A Novel by Andy Weir. On October 5, we will again decorate the Sukkah in the sanctuary beginning at 9:00 am. Please also mark your calendars for the Annual Breast Cancer Walk on Sunday October 19 when we will raise funds and walk together on the Sunken Meadow boardwalk. More details will soon be heading your way.

Annual dues are $40 per member and are complimentary to new Temple Beth David members. You can bring your check to your first event (payable to TBD Sisterhood), or mail it to Temple Beth David, 100 Hauppauge Rd, and mark the envelope "Attention: Sisterhood "Membership." Please pay before Monday, November 5, so you can be included in our Paid-Up Membership Dinner.

Our goal as Sisters is to support the temple and outside communities as well as to find old and new friends and build community. Be well and see you soon!

Tashlich by the Sound

"Shofar at the Shore"

TUESDAY, September 23rd @ 4:00 pm

Sunken Meadow State Park, Field 3

On the afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah, it is traditional to go to a body of water to symbolically "cast away" our sins. Join the Temple Beth David family at the shore of Long Island Sound for this special observance. Let this special, 15-minute ceremony help you and your loved ones deepen the connection between the "Days of Awe" and the magnificent beauty of the world we share.

Bring shoes you won't mind getting sandy, and some bread crumbs to add to the tradition. Prayer sheets will be provided.

TEMPLE BETH DAVID

SHARING & GIVING LIFE, FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION

TO GET THERE: Take Sunken Meadow Pkwy. north to the park. (You may need to pay a fee at the toll booth.) After the toll booth, drive 1 mile. Just after crossing a small bridge, turn right at the sign for Field 3. Continue ½ mile and park at the pavilion. We will meet at the east end of the boardwalk before 4PM and then go as a group to the water.

NEW YEAR!*NEW SHABBAT EVENING SERVICE TIMES

Starting in September, Friday evening Shabbat Services will begin at 7:30 pm except for the FIRST Friday of the month which will remain at 6:30 pm.

First Friday of the Month @ 6:30 pm
Family Services with Monthly Birthday Blessings
“Pre-Neg” 6:00-6:30 pm

All other Fridays, Oneg Shabbat follows services

We are grateful to all who led services during the summer!

We hope to see you at our Welcome Back Nosh!

Spotlight on Brotherhood

Many, many years have elapsed since I last sat down to complete my back-to-school assignment of “What I Did This Summer.” Yet, while it is the first week of September and my school days are far behind me, I sit at my desk once again to complete the assignment.

My name is Steven Sarisohn and I am the president of the Temple Beth David Brotherhood. I am taking this opportunity, not only to share what the Brotherhood did this summer, but to let you know something about what we’ve planned for the next few months. We hope that you will join Brotherhood, attend some of our events, and in the process, experience the fellowship and camaraderie that creates a very special bond amongst our members.

What is a summer without ice cream? Starting on a Wednesday in May, and continuing one Wednesday each month, we gathered at the Carvel on Commack Road to visit, reconnect and of course to eat ice cream sun-daes. (Remember, it is buy one, get one free on Wednesdays). Please join us on September 17 at 7:00 pm. Bring your family. Everyone is welcome.

In June, we celebrated our annual Bourbon Night by sampling and then voting on our favorite bourbon. Making the evening special were the toasts of thanks and gratitude that preceded each tasting. In July, we “hiked” the trails of Blydenburgh Lake. Okay, so maybe it was more of a walk and the lake isn’t there anymore, but we still enjoyed ourselves.

In August, we donned lifejackets and kayaks and took on the mighty Nissequogue River in Smithtown for our always popular family friendly “Jews in Canoes” adventure. It always amazes me how such a beautiful, relaxing, lazy river ride can be so close to home. Just one day later, Brotherhood and Sisterhood joined forces to spend a perfect summer evening schmoozing together at Sunken Meadow State Park.

Mark your calendars now! We kick off the return to our fall schedule on the afternoon of Sunday September 14. Join us for our first ever Brotherhood tailgating event! Food, cornhole and other tailgating activities await. While you eat, have fun, and meet your fellow congregants, take advantage of the opportunity to learn about Brotherhood.

As members of Brotherhood we combine food with friendship in service to our congregation, and especially for our youth. On October 5, we will build a sukkah. This year, on October 7 Brotherhood will for the first time eat dinner and conduct a service inside the structure we have built. Then, on Tuesday, October 14, Millers Ale House will be the venue of our Miller’s Minyon. Football is also in full swing in October. If you like pizza, wings and football, keep October 26 open. Family Shabbat takes place on Friday November 7 and you won’t want to miss the legendary Brotherhood Oneg. Many more activities are in the planning stages and we want you to become a part of them in any way that you are able. Please contact me for more information.

News from Isaiah 58

Getting ready to celebrate the new year, to take stock of the past year and look for inspiration to do better? Join us in our annual Rosh Hashanah – Yom Kippur Temple-Wide Food Drive being held between September 23 and October 2. When you come to our Temple, look for the empty shopping bags and please bring them back full of food. Items must be shelf-stable to give to our JCC food pantry and East Northport food pantry. There is much need in our community! For the Isaiah 58 Social Action Committee, our mission remains solid: to help those who experience food insecurity. Imagine not having enough nutritious food to feed yourself or your family or a lack of money to pay for more... We are grateful for all the donations that we receive. Groceries, gift cards to food stores, and monetary donations keep us in business!

When I attend services, I look forward to the reading from the Isaiah 58 chapter. At Yom Kippur, my fast is an expression of my commitment to Judaism and a reminder about the discomfort of hunger. I hope my worship will inscribe me in the Book of Life. I hope to be present for it all and share the High Holidays with you!

The Isaiah 58 Social Action Committee has been helping folks in need for over 28 years. Each year, we renew our pledge to eradicate hunger in our community and alleviate food instability for families. The challenge now is greater than ever! Our committee of loyal members believe in doing positive social actions to better ourselves and lift up others. Donating shelf-stable items or showing support with monetary donations to our local food pantries and Long Island Cares is vital to our mission. Sending a monetary donation directly to Long Island Cares is easy – just access their website and click to donate. Consider the cost of take-out lunch, around $10, and know that your donation of $10 provides a child in need with 11 meals. If you care deeply about feeding others, just as you would feed yourself, lean in and join us. If you prefer, you can donate to Isaiah 58 on the temple website and we will do the shopping for you!

L'Shanah Tova! The Isaiah 58 Committee meets on Thursday, September 18, 2025 at 7:30 p.m. at TBD. Everyone is welcome to join us. Dates for our other projects will be announced soon. Remember to check the temple website and HaKol for details.
