

TEMPLE BETH DAVID
RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

2026-2027 REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Grades K-7 and Together with Tots

The Temple Beth David Religious School offers a vibrant and varied educational program for children and their families in Kindergarten through High School.

Students experience a hands-on approach to Jewish life. We celebrate Shabbat and holidays, introducing students to symbols of Judaism, Torah, Israel, Jewish History and Hebrew. Formal Hebrew Language instruction begins in the Second/Third Grade class. Hebrew reading instruction is individualized to provide all students with meaningful learning situations. In Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades families participate in our PACT Program: Parent And Child Together. PACT students attend a traditional class one day each week as well as learn side by side with their parent/s in various grade-level workshops. In all grades, classroom instruction is enriched by regular Music Sessions, Worship Services in the Sanctuary and special projects. Our teens in Eighth through Twelfth Grades may apply to serve as a Student Aide in our Religious School, tutoring younger students in Hebrew, assisting teachers and children in a classroom, performing basic office tasks and/or volunteering at family events.
