Rabbi's Message by Rabbi Dr. Kari Tuling

Shalom,

Now that the dust has settled, I thought that I might share "25 things you didn't know about me."

1. I grew up in Orange County, California, about 20-30 minutes from the beach. Growing up, my family liked to celebrate holiday meals at the beach (including Thanksgiving! My family once cooked a whole turkey in foil all day in a campground firepit – so tasty! And so slow!)
2. My husband Tom grew up in Lausanne, Switzerland and Spokane, Washington.
3. Tom and I were married in Spokane, Washington on December 30, 2007.
4. My favorite color is sunflower yellow. Always has been.
5. Ironically, I am allergic to sunflowers (along with a long list of other things).
6. My favorite holiday is Passover. For the record, gluten free matzah is much tastier than regular matzah.
7. I am more of a cat person than a dog person, but I still like dogs.
8. Our cat, Justine, is nicknamed "the stabby panda" because she has panda-colored markings and can get feisty.
9. I like French food best, though I like all kinds of cuisines.
10. I'm also a fan of Spanish, Japanese, and Korean food.
11. I love coffee and drink three four to cups a day. Usually it's black coffee, though occasionally I'll have a latte. When we were in DC, I got introduced to a "halva latte" at the café chain called Tatte, and we've been making them at home.

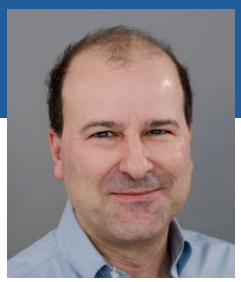
Message from President Jonathan Faust



As a congregation, we are in the middle of an important conversation: what do we want Temple Beth David to be? We don't have the full answer yet, and that's okay. We have learned a lot over the last few months and will keep discovering more during Rabbi Tuling's time with us. We are looking closely at our worship, our programs, and the ways we come together. Most importantly, we are asking what will serve our members best now and in the years ahead. The answer should not come from a handful of leaders. It needs to be shaped by all of us.

Our Interim Rabbi, Rabbi Tuling, is helping to guide these conversations, to ask thoughtful questions, and to begin to find answers. Her role is not to decide who we are, but to help us work it out together. I encourage you to share your thoughts with her, with any board member, and with each other. You can also reach me directly at president@tbdcommack.org.

Jonathan Faust

12. I like to work on little embroidery kits to unwind. Right now, I'm working on an embroidery kit that will eventually become a little 4 inch hedgehog doll.
13. I am an avid gardener. We've been growing salvia, butterfly bushes, Japanese eggplant, and yellow heirloom tomatoes on our balcony.
14. I am allergic to tomatoes, but Tom enjoys them.
15. Our cat Justine really loves the balcony, but we had to add mesh wire to the railings. The first time we let Justine out on the balcony, she walked right through the railing and sat on the edge. We were terrified that she was going to fall. She did not fall, but we weren't taking any more chances.
16. I love a wide range of music; I listen to classical, folk, alternative rock, and funk.
17. My favorite band is The Cure. I saw them at Madison Square Garden two years ago – such an amazing concert.
18. I am a fan of opera and will go see Tosca at the Met this year.
19. I also really love modern art. We're members at MOMA and the Whitney.
20. I am an artist myself, and I created some of the paintings/drawings in my home and office.
21. I can draw almost anything freehand and have it turn out well.
22. Learning to sing, on the other hand, took a lot of work. I am just musical enough that it was possible for me to learn, but not so musical as to make it easy.
23. I learned Hebrew as an adult, starting with an Adult B'nai Mitzvah program.
24. I work on my conversational Hebrew with an Israeli tutor two to three times a week.
25. I am really enjoying my time here at Temple Beth David!

Feel free to come and visit me at the office! – I'm often here on Tuesdays through Thursdays and by appointment.

All the best,
Rabbi Dr. Kari Tuling

Religious School News from Dr. Margie Gursky

As always, the Fall Jewish holidays were quite the whirlwind! During the end of September and beginning of October, we held many activities, programs and services for Sukkot and Simhat Torah. Pizza in the Hut took place during a 4-day Nor'easter storm, and it was touch and go if I was going to cancel it. I am so glad I did not cancel it as about 100 people came out in the bad weather to eat pizza and make edible sukkahs out of frosting and graham crackers. Yum! Rabbi Tuling went around to all the tables to shake the lulav and etrog with our families. Though we couldn't actually go in the sukkah that day, a fun time was had by all! The storm cleared in time, however, for our students to fulfill the mitzvah of visiting the sukkah and shaking the lulav and etrog during class time.

Sukkot was followed by Simhat Torah when, for a few reasons, we held a very special service. First, of course, it is a time for all of us to be grateful for the Torah and acknowledge the joy of starting to read it all over again. Second, we took this opportunity to commemorate the dozens of new students starting their Religious School education at TBD. All of our new students received a certificate, a genuine mini-Torah, and a blessing from Rabbi Tuling and Cantor Merrick. And finally, the evening was topped off with Rabbi Tuling unrolling the entire Torah. All of the adult congregants held it up as we stood in a circle. Thank you to Jonathan Faust, Jacob Seto, TJ Spenelli, Gary Camera and Daniel Mazzei for helping Rabbi Tuling unroll the Torah and roll it up again. Check out the photos from Sukkot and Simhat Torah.

The second half of October was almost as busy as the first. We hosted our first two PACT programs for 4th/5th and 6th/7th graders. Our Shin Shin joined us for both programs and created an engaging atmosphere for our families to learn about Israel through the lenses of the Holiness and Mitzvot themes. These programs have been given a new spark by our Shin Shin. I hope that you will be able to attend the future PACT programs with our Shin Shin in December, January, and April.

Also, our Religious School Parent/Grandparent Committee met for the first time on October 13 to start planning for Kindness Week. The next meeting is November 17 when we will be planning for the Hanukkah Happening on December 7 and the Bingo Brunch Fundraiser on February 7. Hope to see you there!

Finally, Kindness Week runs from November 15-22. On the 15th, our students will be singing at Gurwin at 2:00 pm. Our school is collaborating with Isaiah 58 to collect donations for the Thanksgiving food drive. During the class days of that week, our students, with the help of some parents, will participate in a few fun activities to help our community. If you want to help, please let us know.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!
Dr. Margie Gursky

Sisterhood News

Sisterhood's Book Club continues to thrive with Sandi Burgess and Jodi Maisel at the helm. We met last month to discuss Judith Viorst's very relatable Making the Best of What's Left. Please see The Megillah for information about the upcoming book title and meeting date.

Thank you to Debra Blatt and Barbara Klein for organizing our annual Breast Cancer Walk on the Sunken Meadow Boardwalk on Sunday, October 18th. While the temperature was a little chilly, the energy among those who attended was warm and meaningful. Donations to our team can still be made through December 31 by searching for:

Temple Beth David:
https://secure.acsevents.org/site/SPageServer/?pagename=strides_donate_now

On Thursday, November 19, we will be hosting our Paid-Up Membership Dinner at Bivio, located at 1801 East Jericho Turnpike in Huntington, across from the Dix Hills Diner. We would love to have you join us whether you are current, past, or new to Sisterhood and/or Temple Beth David.

Please know that Sisterhood dues are $40 per year. Membership is free for the first year if you are a new temple member.

Along with your check payable to TBD Sisterhood (or indicate if you are a new member), include email, phone number(s), and address.

Either (a) bring this information and check to your first event, or (b) place in the Sisterhood mailbox, or (c) mail to Temple Beth David at 100 Hauppauge Rd, Commack, and mark Attention: Sisterhood Membership, or (d) Venmo @TBDSisterhoodCommack and include in What's This For? your email and cell number.

Please contact us before November 12 if you are planning to attend the Paid-Up Membership Dinner. If you are attending, please bring a new (unused) toiletry or cosmetic item that we will be donating to a women's shelter.

Wishing everyone a Happy Thanksgiving!

Brotherhood News

Spoiler alert: You're going to learn what Achavah אַחֲוָה means, and what it looks like in practice.

Nothing says "Brotherhood" more than a bunch of cranky guys on a Sunday morning gathered for the thankless job of taking down the Temple Beth David sukkah.

It's a unique blend of carpentry/hardware skills (or lack thereof), differing, strong opinions (or lack thereof) and the inevitable search for the grayish-colored sheetrock screws that have fallen from the ladder to the grayish-colored paving stones below.

It's one thing when one or two screws drop as the power drill frees them from their wooden encasement. It's quite another when the ladder gets jostled, and the pile of a few dozen screws sitting on the top rung spills to the ground in unison. Fingers are pointed, blame is assessed, intelligence and/or attention span (or lack thereof) are questioned out loud and ultimately, the search and rescue mission seems to be an unnecessary complication.

But for the guys who were there that morning, the essence of TBD's Brotherhood was on full display. The process of taking down the sukkah became an opportunity to lift up two members who had just lost loved ones. That day, they knew they would find friendship, support and the sort of kindness that's both spontaneous and genuine. Achavah אַחֲוָה literally translates to brotherhood or fellowship, and that's what our group delivered that Sunday morning.

Our breakfast meeting at the Candlelight Diner was well-attended, highly productive and much more filling than the un-toasted bagels offered when we're at TBD. Similarly, when we moved our mid-October meeting from Tuesday to Thursday, we suggested gathering at Starbucks. As they say in Spanish, "No Bueno." After the first six guys walked in and we surveyed the scant available seating, we implemented plan-B and headed over to Friendly's, home of the Happy Ending Sundae and many other delicacies.

With all of these gatherings, one would assume there's some actual programming to report?

We proudly supported our highly successful Comedy Night on October 17th – a great way to get the social event season started. October 25th saw one of our most popular fall events, as we hosted NBC4 Long Island Reporter Greg Cergol and his wife Joan, a former member of the Huntington Town Council. It was a spirited, interesting presentation, and we'll share more reflections in next month's Hakol.

Please mark your calendars for these upcoming events and activities:

Sunday, November 8 @ 7:00 PM - Planning Meeting in the TBD Social Hall

Monday, November 16 @ 7:00 PM - Annual Brotherhood Dinner

– check your email, What'sApp and Facebook for the location and details.

Sunday, December 6 @ 9:00 AM – TBD's annual Hanukkah Happening. Join the Brotherhood as we support this awesome family event.

If you are a new temple member, we're eager to welcome you to join the Brotherhood. Dues are waived for the first year, so check the calendar and come down to any of our upcoming events. We'd love to meet you!

News from Isaiah 58

Each dedicated member of Isaiah 58, every month of the year, takes the time to give back to the community. In this season of gratitude, we invite you to join us in our upcoming project, our annual Thanksgiving Food Drive. We use our precious time, energy and monetary support to help those in need. Our mission statement directs us to donate food to our local food pantries which then distribute the food to hundreds of people. The need is great and many shelves are bare.

This Thanksgiving, we are asking for an avalanche of food donations! We are partners with the JCC this time of year. Please donate generously THIS month so we can continue our mission! If you cannot shop, a monetary donation allows us to shop for you and increases our total haul. Donations are due by November 20.

Share the joy of giving to others and the uplifted feeling that accompanies altruism. Come to our meetings and share your ideas for positive social action. Everyone is welcome!

This day, count your blessings and give thanks. This month, be grateful and generous to others in your words and in your deeds. The Isaiah 58 Committee wishes you all a healthy, Happy Thanksgiving!

Pray for peace,
Jane Oberwager Gaines
